Hispano Chamber, Mexican American rights group, Kirtland AFB, host Business EXPO

The Albuquerque Hispano Chamber of Commerce, in partnership with Kirtland AFB and the National Organization for Mexican American Rights, will hold a small business conference and trade fair, "Building Partnerships for the 21st Century," June 23, in the TVI Work Force Training Center, 5600 Eagle Rock Road, Northeast.

Register by calling Connie Lee, Albuquerque Chamber of Commerce, 842-9003.

The purpose of the conference is to link minority and women-owned businesses with Air Force, Department of Energy, National Laboratories, corporate and government purchasing officials. Local government, federal government and corporate purchasing officials will present "who they are and what they buy" on the morning of June 23. Sixteen related workshops will be held that afternoon. Relationships between prime and sub-contractors will also be a focus of the event.

Participants will be able to participate in discussions such as "How to Team with Large Business," "E-Mercado/Electronic Commerce," "GSA—How to Get on Contract," "ISO-9000," "Elements of a Winning Proposal," "Affirmative Action" and 10 other related topics.

The cost for attending the conference, $25, includes continental breakfast and lunch.

A trade fair will be held concurrent with the workshops on the afternoon of June 23. Key government participants include Kirtland AFB, Air Force Research Laboratories, DOE, Sandia and Los Alamos National Laboratories, UNM, state and local agencies.

Corporate participants are SAIC, Northrup Grumman, Applied Research Associates, Chugach Management Corporation, PDS Technical Services, Aerotek and Anteon Corporation.

Exhibit fee for the trade fair is $140.

To register, call Connie Lee, the Albuquerque Hispano Chamber of Commerce, 842-9003.
